

CONTENTS

Maximum Use of Casework Service in a Period of Mobilization— Jeannette Hanford	7
Education for Responsible Parenthood—Grace Mayberg	18
Marital Counseling in a Family Service Agency—Eleanor A. Moore	25
Homemaker Service as a Method of Serving Children—Margaret Fitzsimmons	32
Homemaker Service for Older Persons—Frances Preston	42
A Home Care Medical Program to Meet the Needs of Individuals and Families—Virginia Insley	49
Constructive Aspects of Public Assistance for Children—Crystal M. Potter and Amelia M. Igel	55
Current Emphases in Casework in Public Agencies in Rural Areas —Mary B. Calvert	63
Meeting the Mental Health Needs of Children in School Today: Psychiatric Implications for the Practice of School Social Work—Jules V. Coleman, M.D.	70
Casework Today in a Psychiatric Setting—Myron John Rockmore	80
Casework Services Today in a Hospital Setting—Mary L. Hemmy	90
Casework Services Today in Institutions for Delinquent Children —Norman V. Lourie	96
Discussion of Casework Services Today in Institutions for De- linquents—Hortense S. Cochrane	110
Discussion of Casework Services Today in Institutions for De- linquents—Alan Keith-Lucas	115
The Delinquent—His Education—J. Donald Coldren	118
The Use of Foster Homes in the Care of Unmarried Mothers— Dorothy Hutchinson	129
Casework Methods and Psychological Techniques in Selection of Adoption Applicants—Frieda M. Kuhlmann	138
Discussion of Casework Methods and Psychological Techniques in Selection of Adoption Applicants—Verne A. Weed	151
Long-Time Temporary Placement of Children—Mary E. Lewis	154
An Evaluation of Differentiated Caseloads—Margaret G. Muller	162
Fees for Social Welfare Services: Interpretation of Agency Policy —Frances T. Levinson	169